INTERESTING HISTORY

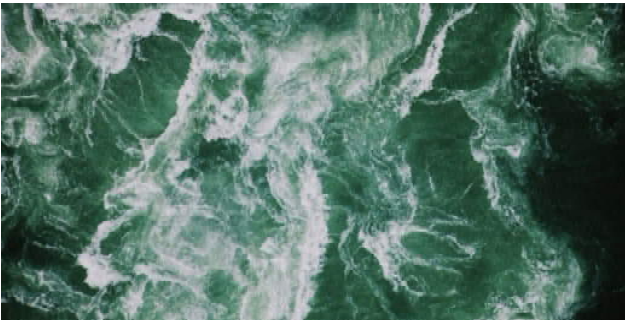

- The town was originally named Pentucket or "place of the winding river".
- The town was renamed Haverhill after Haverhill, England. This English town was the birthplace of the settlement's first pastor, John Ward.
- Several women from Haverhill were accused of witchcraft, and a few were found guilty during the Salem witch trials.
- It is said that the early settlers of Haverhill worshipped under a large oak tree, known as the "Worshipping Oak".

CELEBRATING THE NATURAL ELEMENTS OF HAVERHILL

The Merrimack river and surrounding natural shoreline has been an important and strategic part of Haverhill's economic development throughout its history. Today it is still important aspect of the City and one that creates a diversity of natural elements that should be embraced and celebrated.
